El Monte Host to Valley Chambers at Monthly Meet

Over three hundred representatives of the various chambers of commerce of the San Gabriel valley gathered on Tuesday evening in the Shakespeare clubhouse, El Monte, at the May dinner of the associated chambers. The dinner, an excellent one, was furnished by the ladies of the Shakespeare club, assisted in serving by young ladies from the El Monte high school.

The program consisted of addresses by Byron Pitts, chief prosecutor of the district attorney's office of Los Angeles county, D. J. Shultis of Baldwin Park, R. Holtby Myers, secretary of the Los Angeles Building and Loan association, and Geo. H. Barnes, Los Angeles business man and president of the American Reforestation association.

Mr. Pitts' address dealt with crime, followed by practical suggestions for the amendment of the criminal laws. He threw stress on the fact that organized blackmailing prevailed at this time to a greater extent than at any time in the history of the world, stating that no man of any prominence in the community was safe from the attacks of the organized blackmailer.

D. J. Shultis of Baldwin Park, director-at-large of the association, received an ovation when he arose to address the gathering on his trip through Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Shultis have recently returned from a four months' trip down the west coast and through central Mexico, covering a distance of over 6000 miles. They went down the coast by freight steamer and, as far as possible, arranged that their entire journey should be out of the beaten track of the tourist. Mr. Shultis' address was the hit of the evening, being full of humor and dealing with the intimate life of the Mexicans observed during his trip.

Mr. Barnes spoke for thirty minutes upon the devastation which has been wrought throughout the United States by the cutting and burning of timberland.

Mr. Myers closed the evening with an address on business ethics.

The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. Frank Hays, president of the El Monte chamber of commerce. J. L. Matthews, president, presided during the evening.

Club Will Present Program of Music

A musical treat is to be given the members and friends of the Covina Woman's club next Monday afternoon, when the well known artists, Margaret Messer Morris, soprano, and Taska Tolcis, pianist, will offer one of the best programs of the year. Guest cards may be used. The meeting will be the last regular meeting of the year, since on May 24 the annual club breakfast will be the special feature, with report and installation of new officers.

Mrs. John Nicholson entertained her Sunday school class at breakfast Sunday morning. Guests besides the class were Mrs. C. C. Collins, Miss Lucile Vail and Miss Henry.

Covina Lyric Club Presents Annual Spring Concert

The Covina Valley Lyric club gave its spring concert Tuesday evening in the Methodist church. The doors between the auditorium and Sunday school room were thrown open to accommodate the large assemblage of friends who were present. The chorus of twenty-nine voices, directed by Mr. Clifford Lott, possessed a volume that would have filled a larger space. The program differed from previous concerts, the latter half being a cantata with piano and pipe organ accompaniment.

The opening number, "Sanctus" (Gounod), was a favorite, the rich voice of Mrs. Charlotte White Nafel in the incidental solo appealing to the audience. "At Eventide I Shall Be Light" from "The Holy City" (Gaul), and "Goin' Home" (Dvorak), the latter in a lighter vein, completed the first group.

Mr. Clifford Lott, baritone soloist, sang the "Creation Hymn" (Beeethoven) and "A New Heaven and a New Earth," from the Holy City, receiving a hearty encore to which, however, he did not respond.

The third group, by the club, was "Lift Up Thine Eyes" (Mendelssohn) and "Nazareth" (Gounod) with second piano by Miss Nicholson. Mrs. Harry Damerel, the club accompanist, played throughout the program with her usual skill.

Then followed a cantata, "Light," the text by Frederick Brooks and music by Richard Kountz, in which Mrs. Damerel was assisted by Miss Nicholson at the pipe organ. The expression and feeling which the director drew from the chorus was excellent, the unison perfect, and the increase of volume to the climax in the last verse, was fine. The pipe organ accompaniment, under the skilled touch of Miss Nicholson, was requisite for the cantata, and for this reason the Methodist church was chosen.

The Lyric club was organized in 1918 under the direction of Mr. Clifford Lott, and much of the success of the club has depended upon the accompaniment of Mrs. Henry Damerel.

Active members of the club are as follows: Mrs. J. D. Birby, Jr., Mrs. Carl Clapp, Mrs. Hal Cook, Mrs. J. H. Coolman, Mrs. V. C. Johnson, Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. Charlotte Nafel, Mrs. G. F. Preston, Mrs. Harry Webster.

Second sopranos—Miss Hazel Bristow, Mrs. R. W. Crook, Mrs. Betty Duncan, Mrs. Sherman Gail, Mrs. Edith George, Mrs. Clair Hammond, Miss Iris Harlan, Mrs. A. Lund, Miss Margaret Kaiser, Mrs. W. P. Magan, Miss Lucy Matthews, Mrs. E. S. Warden, Mrs. David S. Watson, Mrs. H. A. Werden, Miss Virgie Wilson.

Altos—Mrs. E. B. Chambers, Mrs. Milton Murnett, Miss Verna Elfrink, Miss Crystal Gates, Mrs. Fred C. Kaiser, Mrs. A. W. Pottinger, Mrs. F. C. Schureman, Mrs. William B. Thorne, Miss Mabel Van Vliet, Miss Ruth Watson, Mrs. Ed Willis.

AGRICULTURAL FIRM OFFERS FREE FLOWERING PLANTS

Following the announcement made by the Covina chamber of commerce that the official slogan for Covina will be "The City of Flowers," Charles Spear, the manager of the Western Agricultural Service, (Inc.) announced that their nurseries will donate for free distribution this fall ten thousand flowering plants for planting within the city limits and ten thousand for planting in the suburbs.

Mrs. George Leonardy spent the week-end with friends in Pasadena. Mr. Leonardy was one of a party of fishermen.

COVINA ADOPTS OFFICIAL SLOGAN

Covina—"The City of Flowers."

This is the slogan adopted by the chamber of commerce, at the suggestion of its secretary, Julius Jorgenson.

How do you like it? The slogan appears to be a good one—appropriate and suggestive. The gardens and parkways of Covina are a riot of floral bloom every month in the year, and the slogan will be an incentive for our residents to beautify their grounds to even a greater extent.

Annual Hospital Day May 12, Will Be Observed Here

Commemoration of May 12, both as a tribute to Florence Nightingale and as an annual observance calculated to draw attention to the greater and smaller hospitals and allied institutions of the country has spread into many far-away countries and bids fair to extend throughout the breadth and length of the world.

Probably no other national and no international observance of a particular day during the year has made such rapid strides during its inception nor has made a deeper impression on the general public.

The Covina hospital, as last year, will observe hospital day by having open house on May 12, from 2 to 5, when visitors will be welcomed and shown through the entire building. All the babies born in the hospital have been sent special invitations to attend the "baby reception," which will be in charge of Mrs. Wallace Reed and Mrs. Shaen Magan.

On the general reception committee will be Mrs. Wellesley Magan, Mrs. J. D. Reed, Mrs. J. L. Matthews, Mrs. George Rinehart, Mrs. Harry Damerel, Mrs. C. E. Hasselander and Mrs. Mary M. Coman. Decorations for the day are in charge of the flower section of the Covina Woman's club, Mrs. George Rinehart.

At 3 o'clock a program will be held on the front lawn, with an address by the Rev. M. L. Kane, and assembly singing led by Rev. Edward Williams.

Girls of the senior group of the high school Girl Reserves, in their white uniforms, will assist wherever needed throughout the afternoon.

Last year about five hundred citizens of the valley called at the hospital on May 12, and it is hoped that more will come next Wednesday, 2 to 5, and know their own hospital better.

COOKED FOOD SALE
The ways and means committee of the Woman's club will hold a cooked food sale Monday afternoon at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Ben Thorpe Home After Year Spent in Europe

Mrs. B. F. Thorpe returned to her home in Covina last Friday after a fourteen months' sojourn in Europe in company with her sister, Madame Ellen Beach Yaw Cannon. Setting sail for the United States on April 3rd on the French trans-Atlantic steamer "De Grass," nine days were spent on the home trip, due to storms. Mrs. Cannon remained in New York City with Mr. Cannon, while Mrs. Thorpe visited her brother and friends in Florida.

Mrs. Thorpe's travels extended throughout several of the countries in southern Europe and to London and outlying cities. Although considerable time was spent in the study of music and painting, the traveler made it a point to observe living conditions, especially among the peasant classes. Mrs. Thorpe states that in her four trips to Europe, two previous and two subsequent to the world war, she found the working classes enjoying comforts today that were never dreamed of a few years ago, all being well dressed and well fed, the London slums being a thing of the past.

Rehabilitation is going on rapidly in France, home building encouraged by exemption from taxation for a period of years. Italy, although thriving, is carrying a heavier tax burden. In Germany, the class distinction has been largely broken down, Mrs. Thorpe said. When questioned as to the form of government preferred, the unanimous decision was in favor of the Von Hindenburg rule.

Mrs. Thorpe visited Leipzig, Berlin, Dresden, Munich, and other principal cities of Germany, attending the Ober Amergau and personally meeting Mr. Lang, who has become famous for his interpretation of the Messiah. The greater part of the winter was spent in Italy, a month in Florence, a month in Sorrento, and another at Amalfi in Southern Italy. Czechoslovakia and Austria were also on the itinerary.

The hotels of Europe were filled with Americans, in pursuit of pleasure or learning. Several Southern California residents met at the educational given by Madame Yaw for the American students, including Professor and Mrs. G. W. Ritchie, Miss Helen Broadwell, and Miss Thompson of Azusa.

COVINA HIGH DEBATES WITH CITRUS TOMORROW

"Resolved, that congress should create a cooperative marketing board as proposed by the Coolidge agricultural conference," is the topic of debate between Covina high school and Citrus high school, Saturday evening. The debate is a double header, with Delbert Smith and Eva Shipley taking the affirmative at the Covina school and Elmer Wohlge-muth and Mary Elizabeth Harris is the negative at Citrus.

DAUGHTERS OF REVOLUTION ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The Daughters of the American Revolution held their May meeting on Tuesday at the Mamie Cook tea rooms. After a delightful luncheon, the business session was entered into, including the election of the following officers to serve for the coming year:

Regent, Mrs. C. T. Booth; vice-regent, Mrs. G. F. Rinehart; recording secretary, Mrs. Alice Clapp; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Minnie L. Thurber; treasurer, Miss Emma Hawks; registrar, Mrs. Pardon Head; board of managers, Mrs. W. W. Nash and Mrs. Wm. Warren. Rev. Edward Williams, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Romance Ends for Former Covina Girl

The romance of Theodore J. Mayer, the "millionaire reporter," and his bride, Sandbye Brush Mayer, beautiful Stanford co-ed, whose family was threatened with termination in a suit on file in the divorce courts of San Bernardino this week.

Two months and eight days of married life were more than sufficient, Mrs. Mayer alleged in the complaint, in which she charges the heir to the Theodore A. Havermeyer sugar millions with cruelty. Mrs. Mayer charged that her life was threatened, that young Mayer was madly jealous and that his asserted cruelty manifested itself at every turn of their honeymoon among the hotels of France and Switzerland.

It was in September, 1925, that young Mayer eloped to Santa Ana with Miss Brush. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Neelan Brush, owners of the Big Bear tavern, immediately annulled the marriage and sent their daughter to Stanford.

Mr. Mayer immediately left Los Angeles, went to Stanford and enrolled. In November, when the girl became 18, they were again married and left immediately for Europe.

Mrs. Mayer charged in the complaint that the difficulties reached their climax in the afternoon of a Los Angeles dentist when her husband appeared with a pistol and dragged her down the hall. She asks $2500 for the divorce, $2500 attorneys' fees and $2500 expenses.

ANTHONY SCHORNAGLE HOME FROM THE EAST

Mr. Anthony Schornagle of Arroyo Drive, who several weeks ago was called suddenly to his old home in Pennsylvania by the death of his mother, is expected home today. Mr. Schornagle was the director in charge of the play recently given by the local Lions to provide funds for publicity purposes to be used at the national convention in San Francisco. To his energy the success of the undertaking may be attributed. He was called east following the initial performance.

BOY SCOUTS TAKEN ON EDUCATIONAL TRIP

Rev. M. L. Kain, scoutmaster of Troop 1, Covina Boy Scouts, entertained his troop on an educational trip last Saturday afternoon. The first visit was to the Solig zoo, where on account of the cloudy weather, the animals acted stubborn. The second place visited was the alligator farm. Here the animals were coming out of a six months' dormant state and it is reported that sixteen boys were bitten by alligators—although nothing serious.

Child Seriously Injured When Hit by Machine

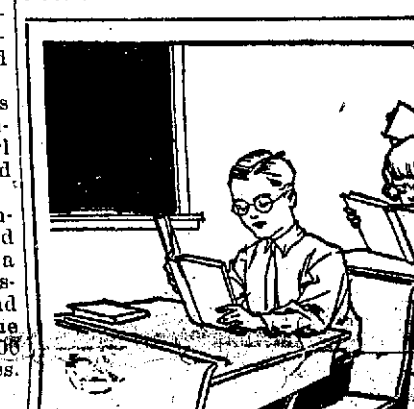

Kenneth Fromm, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Fromm of Dexter street, suffered serious injuries yesterday afternoon, shortly after 2 o'clock, when struck by an automobile driven by Hal Cook, manager of the Chaffee store.

The accident occurred at the intersection of the alley and Citrus avenue, immediately in front of Tripple's furniture store. The boy was rushed to the Covina hospital, where an examination revealed a broken thigh and a possible basal fracture.

The boy ran across the street directly in front of the machine and the accident was apparently unavoidable on the part of the driver. The machine was moving at a slow rate of speed, throwing the boy to the pavement, but not passing over the body. The boy was a student in the Covina grammar school, being in the third grade. The father is a carpenter.

RAISING SILVER FOXES FOR FUR THRIVES IN NORTH

The success of the silver-fox industry in northern California is laid partly to the climate, which permits the construction of pens suitable to the care of the animals. They are large and open, only two or three foxes being kept in one pen at a time. One of the principal farms of the state is located at the base of Mount Shasta, where there is ample room and abundant sunlight. Some foxes bring as high as $1,000 each.

CALIFORNIA VALENCIA-ORANGE SHOW TO BE HELD MAY 13 to 23

Helen Harden, pretty Anaheim girl says: "Have an Orange with me" at the California Valencia Orange show, the blue ribbon event to be held at Anaheim, May 13-23.

Anaheim, May 6.—But a short time remains before the opening of the sixth California Valencia show, and with the exhibits being installed, the decorations up and activity noted in all departments, there is every indication that the forthcoming show will be the best that the organization has held.

The decorations are very elaborate, being founded on the Homeric mythological tale of Helen of Troy. Community displays that are attracting attention are those of the National Orange Show at San Bernardino, the Los Angeles county, Orange county and Pomona displays.

The industrial exhibitors will completely fill the big circular industrial section, the auto salon in a separate tent will show the latest in automobiles.

Anaheim confidently expects to entertain 100,000 visitors during the show.

It was ably assisted by the high school orchestra, and by William Kurash of Baldwin Park, a student of fifteen who possesses a rare talent on the violin, superior to many professionals.

The burlesque opera, "Cleopatra," was excellently done, George Burall as the lady herself sustaining the character in an unusual manner.

PATROLMEN ON DUTY EARLY IN MOUNTAINS

In preparation for the summer season of forest fire hazard, several patrolmen went on duty this week in the Angeles national forest in advance of the regular summer patrol which will take up its stations on the 15th inst.

The start of the campaign for protection from the forest fires followed the close of the two-day training school for twenty-five patrolmen and guards which was held at Arcadia. Forest patrolmen were stationed in Cattle canyon, Rincon and the west fork of the San Gabriel canyon. The five lookout stations which will begin operations next week at located at Mt. Lukens, Mt. San Antonio, San Dimas, Mt. Wilson, and Oat Mountain in the Sanguis district.

Work of cleaning up public camps and removing debris and dead vegetation will be undertaken immediately, and will be completed by July 1, when the fire hazard becomes greatest, the dangerous period lasting until the last of September.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller and Mrs. A. Potter of San Diego, were dinner guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. White in Huntington Park.

Early Days in Covina

TEN YEARS AGO

Covina high school musicians will participate with other valley schools in a concert at Monrovia Tuesday night, given in the city's open-air theater.

District road convention planned by associated chambers of commerce. The banquet was served by the ladies of the Glendora Woman's club. Supervisor Norton made a vigorous speech, opposing the plan of turning over a number of our county boulevards to the state.

California Masons coming here on May 20th. Grand lodge, grand commandery and grand council, with subordinate lodges, numbering 200 or more, will lay cornerstone of the Masons' orphan home.

The main ditch of the Covina Irrigating company leading from San Gabriel river to this section, broke out for a distance of 100 feet, near the Jack Gordon estate above Azusa last Sunday. All the water belonging to that district went through the break.

A maximum temperature of 85 and a minimum of 40 is reported by Weather Bureau Observer Newton Fisher of the Covina high school for the past week. No rain. Total rainfall for the season, 23.72.

Water is icy cold in Bear valley rivers. John Cuddell, Walter Robinson, Fred Clark and E. G. Hotchkiss made the trip Saturday to Deep creek, where they caught the limit of fish.

Dr. A. D. McLeod of Los Angeles has sold a lot and house at 337 East Italia street to William Kridler, who arrived in Covina last week from Youngstown, Ohio.

After a one-day courtship, according to a newspaper story in the Los Angeles Times, Miss Blanche Smoak of Long Beach was married to Baker Wiley of El Paso. Miss Smoak was at one time a resident of Covina, her grandfather having been a rector of the Covina Episcopal church.

Covina Citrus association has finished packing its navel, shipping 97 cars. The employees had a pleasant time Monday evening at the home of their manager, H. R. Sent. The evening was spent in playing games.

McBride & McIntosh have sold their hardware store to S. M. Davis, who will take possession shortly.

Wet and threatening weather has prevailed all the week. The rainfall has amounted to 1.52 inches, making a total of 15.57 for the season. Some may will be damaged but the rain as a whole will prove very beneficial to grain, late-sown hay and pastures.

Saturday last the Misses B. Heakins and Susie Miller entertained a number of their young friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Custer, San Bernardino road. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with roses and pepper boughs.

Members of the Monday Afternoon club were entertained by Mesdames Atkinson, Belle Harris, E. G. Clapp and J. L. Matthews. Mrs. D. G. Jennings gave an excellent review of Kipling's "Soldiers Three." Mrs. Clapp gave an account of her attendance at the Woman's parliament at Santa Paula.

L. L. Ratekin, who has been in Chicago representing the Covina Orange Growers' association for the past month, arrived home Saturday. Mr. Ratekin looks well and has had a pleasant trip, but came back more than ever convinced that Covina is the cream.

The case of Herbert Rush, who is charged with renting his property for gambling purposes, will come before Judge Parker today. The defendant will move for a change of venue, which will probably be granted.

Don't forget the dime social at the Methodist church next Tuesday evening. There will be a good program, games and refreshments.

THE Edison Company serves over 500,000 consumers. In each home there is an average of 10 buttons or switches. That makes 5 million buttons.

Probably each button is used 10 times daily. That makes 50 million calls for service. In every case the response is instantaneous—whether you want to iron a handkerchief or move a train of freight cars.

To meet these calls $250,000,000 has been invested and you have one of the finest electric systems in the world. Yet the cost for service is lower than before the war while the average price of all other commodities is 65% higher.

Growing Summer Covercrops Very Vexing Problem

(From Farm Bureau Monthly)

There is considerable interest among citrus growers on the subject of summer covercropping of citrus orchards. The problem as presented in the form of questions is as follows: Is it advisable to plant? What should be planted, and how?

A large proportion of growers feel that it is profitable to plant winter covercrops. Not only do they feel it is profitable, but in some cases it is almost necessary. The growing of summer crops between the trees is more of a question. The summer covercrop grows in the same soil in which the citrus trees are feeding, at a time of year when the citrus trees are taking from the soil the greatest amount of plant food and moisture.

The question which must be considered is will the covercrop compete with the citrus trees to the extent that the trees may not obtain sufficient available plant food and moisture for maximum growth of both tree and fruit? In some soils perhaps this problem need not give the grower deep concern, but in many soils there is not sufficient available plant food and storage capacity for water to provide for ideal conditions for the growth of the tree, the crop and also the covercrop.

In the case of an orchard of young trees these objections may not obtain, chiefly because the storage capacity for moisture within the soil is adequate and the tree roots do not take up the whole soil area of the orchard. In this case the covercrop is usually not competing to any extent with the citrus trees.

The grower necessarily has to determine these points for himself. It is necessary to work out a program for each individual orchard, based upon size of trees, the soil type, amount of available irrigation water, and the fertility of the soil.

If all things appear to be ideal for planting a crop, the question arises, what to plant? A number of crops have been used successfully in Southern California. Melilotus indica has been grown, the vetches, cowpeas, Melilotus alba, and hubam clover. Covercrops have proved an excellent covercrop, putting on a good growth and providing a good tonnage of green crop to turn under in midsummer. Vetch, especially purple, provides a good tonnage of green manure, as does hubam clover. If one wants a good crop to turn under and also grow a deeply penetrating root system which breaks up the

WHAT'S SMART IN MEN'S WEAR

Two ways of getting your spring outfit. Which is yours?

WHERE do you begin when you get an outfit for the new season?

Lots of men begin with a pearl gray or light tan hat, or a five dollar necktie that happens to take their fancy.

They progress from there to some fancy socks, and then to some new-fangled shoes.

Next they begin to feel that all this finery doesn't seem very appropriate with last winter's by now shabby overcoat, so along about the middle of the season they get around to a new top coat.

Finally, by the time the hat is getting pretty seedy and the tie thoroughly mussed, they decide on a suit. Thus they are finally outfitted, but not thoroughly and harmoniously at any one time.

The logical way is to begin with the suit and top coat, and then get the smaller accessories to harmonize. It doesn't cost any more, and the ensemble is so much more acceptable.

A suit of silver gray, cedar, acid blue or Normandy tan, in solid shades or pattern fabrics, furnishes a good base to work from, according to style advisers of Hart Schaffner & Marx.

With the suit carefully chosen, the selection of the top coat becomes easier, and it is no trouble at all to pick out hat, tie, shirt, hosiery and shoes to harmonize. Why not try being well dressed from head to foot all at once?

out more quickly on the surface and as a consequence a poor stand may be obtained. In the case of these shallow seeded plants, it is advisable to water quite often with just enough moisture to wet the surface soil. This can be very well accomplished where the overhead irrigation system is used. Covercrops in general necessarily have to be watered about every two weeks, and perhaps in the case of some of the lighter soils during very warm weather, even more often, possibly every ten days.

In the case of a crop that is not to grow throughout the following fall and winter, the time for turning under is in August. It matters little whether the crop is turned under with a disc or plow, with the exception that plowing as ordinarily practiced will probably turn the covercrop under a little deeper. The time for turning these crops under depends largely upon the crop raised. In each case it should be turned under while it is still in the green state.

The growing of summer covercrops is an individual orchard problem and for this reason it is probably not safe to recommend it generally.

Paper Cups and Dishes Made by Electricity

Exemplifying the many diversified applications of electricity, ingenious machines are now used for making paper cups and dishes by a manufacturing concern in Brooklyn. The creation of these paper cups is an interesting process. Mechanical fingers on an ingenious electric-driven machine pick up a single disk of fine quality paper and place it in a section of the machine for pressing. This pressing gives the cup its shape, plating the sides for strength and rigidity. The piece is then transferred to another unit of the same machine, where it is sterilized by heating.

When the second step has been completed, the cup has assumed its final form with plaited sides, natural curved lip and tumbler shape. But, as a measure of added efficiency, it is put through a third process, being sprayed with hot paraffin, which seals the plait and gives increased rigidity and crispness. From this point the cup passes into a baking chamber, where the paraffin is driven off. The finished cups are carried along on an endless conveyor past a fan, the breeze from which hastens drying.

Relieves Workers of Stigma of Suspicion

To save workers in factories which employ in their products gold, silver, or precious stones from suffering the indignity of being selected for searching, a Danish engineer has invented a special apparatus.

Hitherto, the custom has been to stop a certain proportion of the workers leaving such factories at night, thus apparently casting suspicion upon the individuals selected. By the new invention the worker asked to adjourn to a searching room is chosen by a machine.

The apparatus consists of a container holding a number of balls, corresponding to the number of workers engaged in the factory. Some of the balls are made of a material conductive of electricity. As the workers pass to the exit they press a button, when a ball is released. It rolls out of the container and a white lamp glows for a moment. In such case the worker passes on.

Should one of the conducting spheres roll out, the electric current turns on a red lamp, which means that the person indicated is one of those to be searched.

Wife Was His Memory
"Your story of the absent-minded minister," writes a contributor to the Youth's Companion, "reminds me of a minister whom I knew in a little Wisconsin town many years ago. He had a wretched memory, but for all that he was nothing less than a saint."

"His absent-mindedness was chronic. He seldom could remember his text, and, being anxious to notes, he depended on his good wife to come to his rescue. He would lean over the pulpit and say, 'What was my text for today, my dear?'"

"She would tell him, and he would then proceed to preach a fine sermon from it."
"One Sunday after the singing of the second hymn he opened his Bible, and, leaning down, made the usual request: 'My text for today, my dear?'"

"I don't know, I'm sure," he composedly replied his wife. "You forgot to tell me!"

Butterless Land
The supply of fluid milk in the Dominican republic is fairly adequate and although it is in general use for production and distribution do not prevail. A large amount of condensed, evaporated and powdered milk is imported into the country each year and one of the other of these preserved milks is always used for infant feeding. No butter is made anywhere in the republic and the demand for this commodity in the local market is met by importations chiefly from the United States and Denmark.—New York Times.

She Pittied the Lion
Uncle had just returned home from an expedition into Africa after big game, says the Tatler; he was delighting all the family with stirring tales of adventure in the jungle.
"One of my beaters was so savagely bitten by a lion once," he announced, "that he had to have his arm amputated."
There was a short silence while the information sank in, and then the small daughter of the house said in a sympathetic voice:
"What a pity, uncle; the poor lion might just as well have had it."

Do Not Force Plants
If a plant has been growing thriftily for some time and then begins to go back it probably needs rest, and no amount of forcing will do any permanent good. During the resting period a plant is better if left entirely alone in a dry, cool cellar. It will of its own accord and without any attention of any kind begin to put out new green shoots. When these new shoots show themselves the plant should be given a thorough watering, a re-potting if necessary, and brought up into its place in the sun. After it is growing well it may be given fertilizer.

Ski and Snowshoes
Owing to the thick forests of America the snowshoe has been found to be more suitable for use than the ski, which is preferred in the wooded regions. The large flat surface of the snowshoe furnishes a larger plane of resistance to the soft snow and by distributing the weight of the wearer over a larger surface does not break the brittle crust on top of the snow, which makes progress without snowshoes impossible.

Did You Ever Stop to Think?

THAT the advertising columns sparkle with money-saving information. They show you where to buy the best for less.

THAT if it were not for the advertisements, people would know nothing about bargains. The ads are the means that inform the people what is for sale and where, so they can take advantage of the bargains that business concerns have to offer.

THAT there is no use in taking chances as to the quality of the goods you buy. You can cut out all possible chance by buying from home merchants who advertise.

THAT in addition to the quality and service you get from your home merchants, your city needs your dollars. You may be hard up and have little to spend, but that little stays in the home city and helps keep business of the home city moving.

THAT your city needs you and your money, just as you need your city. You can only be loyal to yourself when you are loyal to your city.

Automobile Man Dies Following Few Days' Illness

Following an illness of only a few days, the death of Howard Lester McKenzie, manager of the Covina branch of Elsbey Reynolds, Jr., Inc. Studebaker distributors, occurred on Thursday at his home in Pomona. This was a surprise and shock to his circle of business friends and associates throughout the valley. The cause of death was blood poisoning, which followed a slight scratch upon the hand earlier in the week.

Funeral services, which were largely attended, were held Saturday at 2 p.m., from the Todd & Reeves funeral parlors, Pomona, Rev. F. C. Watson, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, officiating.

While in charge of the Studebaker interests in this valley, deceased had many friends. He moved to this state from Lenox, Iowa, settling in Pomona three years ago. Besides the widow and his widowed mother, Mr. Mackenzie is survived by two sons and four daughters, all of whom reside at home.

The Covina high school district was organized in 1899. There was one graduate that year—Miss Lily Harris.

Henry Ford will build adjacent to the old Wayside Inn, at Sudbury, Mass., made famous by Longfellow, a colonial village in which three hundred people will live after the fashion of the Pilgrim Fathers. Mr. Ford's interest in preservation of historical objects is one of the most interesting phases of the character of this remarkable captain of industry.

The first hall built in Covina was the building now standing opposite the Argus office. Mr. Phillips told the young men of the Covina Social club that he would furnish the lumber and the lot if they would erect the building. They completed it in ten days and held a dancing party on the eve of Christmas, 1885.

FLORIDA SOUGHT AS MARKET FOR ORCHARD HEATERS

Paul G. Bulkley and J. P. Meehan, general sales manager for the Kittle Manufacturing company of Azusa, left Wednesday for an overland trip to Florida. They expect to be back in Arizona by the middle of the month, and are making the trip to meet orange growers in Florida relative to an orange heater invented by Mr. Bulkley and manufactured and sold by the Kittle company.

Puddingstone Capacity Will Be Increased

For an extra cost of $250,000 the capacity of the Puddingstone flood control reservoir, which is part of the current flood control program, can be increased by 20,000 acre feet and Los Angeles city, will provide the needed funds in return for the right to use the added capacity, according to a report and contract before the board of supervisors this week for consideration.

The city will use the storage capacity thus obtained for handling water from the Colorado river, if the supervisors accept the plan and contract.

"I am thoroughly in favor of this project," declared Supervisor Cogswell, father of flood control measures, when the terms of the proposal were explained to him. Chairman McClellan said the matter will be brought before the board within a few days.

The flood control district, when it submitted its $35,000,000 bond issue to the voters in 1923, had included in its plan a proposal for a 20,000 acre foot reservoir near San Dimas. A few months ago representatives of the city water bureau of Los Angeles approached the supervisors with the suggestion for joint construction of a larger dam. Since then numerous conferences have been held. Engineers reported that it would cost only $150,000 more to give the necessary added height to the dam, and the water bureau has offered to pay this extra cost, Supervisor Cogswell said this week.

Agency Here for Beach Property

Association of George L. Welsh of Alhambra with the realty firm of I. Worth Everett in the handling of property at San Clemente, The Spanish Village, new beach city on the state highway just half way to San Diego, was announced last week.

San Clemente is the new community which is being built by Ole Hansen, former mayor of Seattle, who is now one of Southern California's best-known subdividers and builders. The property was first offered for sale on December 6 and since that time, according to office announcements, nearly $800,000 worth of property has been sold and the foundations laid for a large seaside community. An extensive building plan has been launched with the result that the administration building, first large structure, is practically complete, and a score of Spanish type homes are practically ready for occupancy.

Mr. Welsh, who has been connected with the Hansen organization for several months, was associate sales manager at the Alhambra office of the company until a few days ago, when he came to Covina to open up the new office with Mr. Everett.

Interested persons are urged to communicate their desire to Mr. Everett's office so that arrangements can be made to take them to San Clemente. Those interested are invited to visit the property, where a lunch is served and lectures delivered four times a week by Ole Hansen.

Citrus Products Companies Join

At their last annual meetings the Exchange Orange Products company of San Dimas and the Exchange Lemon Products company decided to place their management and sales activities under a single head, and elected E. T. Cassel president and general manager of both companies.

To quote Mr. Cassel: "This action was thought advisable in order that the activities of the two plants might be made to synchronize, because so many of our products are so alike that a joint sales organization is almost a necessity."

The California Fruit Growers Exchange board of directors subsequently took action which enabled the products sales organization to operate as the California Fruit Growers Exchange, products department, thus giving it the benefit of Exchange prestige with the trade.

The sales department is now organized with E. P. Johnson, formerly sales manager of the Armit-Jemima Mills company, as sales manager. The sales situation is said to be encouraging.

Using solid ebony for railroad ties seems to indicate extravagance, but since the wood flourishes in forests near a line being built from Alpine, Texas, to Marquez, in Mexico, it has been employed for the purpose. The wood is so hard that holes must be drilled into it before the spikes can be driven through. The ties are dragged in from the mountains with burros, and it is believed they will last for generations.

THIRD

in the World

-and Sales still mounting

During the first three months of 1926 Dodge Brothers, Inc., built and sold more motor vehicles than any other manufacturer in the world, except Ford and Chevrolet.

70,599 were delivered by Dodge Brothers Dealers in the United States alone between January second and April third. This represents a gain of 37 per cent over the same period last year and 69 per cent over the first quarter of 1924!

Third largest in the world! And sales CONTINUING to mount week after week to new record breaking levels.

In fact, during the week ending April 17th (last figures available) retail sales reached the remarkable total of 9,435—the greatest single week in Dodge Brothers history!

These figures are all the more significant when you realize that the gain of the industry as a whole over last year is only 12 per cent.

There could be no more convincing evidence that today's product is regarded as better than ever before and that the present prices make it the most impressive value Dodge Brothers have ever offered.

Has Prohibition Fallen Down?

The wets are in Washington hurling it in the face of congressmen that "prohibition is a failure" and that it's time to modify the eighteenth amendment so as to permit light wines and beer.

If prohibition is a failure, as alleged, and light wines and beer will improve the present liquor-guzzling conditions, then bring on the modification and let's see whether or not it is good business.

But, seriously, is the eighteenth amendment a failure? In thinking on this let us not focus merely the liquor-lapping crowd, the bootleggers and the derelect enforcement officers, for they are not all.

But rather let us bring the question right down to home. Would we prefer that San Fernando return to wide-open saloons with its drunken patrons than to continue under the present local conditions?

Leave it to a vote, a secret ballot, and The Sun will wager a pint of epicure against a quart of buttermilk that ninety per cent of our citizens will vote for keeping the saloons out and for keeping the eighteenth amendment in force.

And since the people of San Fernando are just about the same the country over, it is to be presumed that America's people, though discouraged for the lack of law enforcement, are not willing to throw up their hands and quit.

The Los Angeles Times made a survey of over 100 industrial plants a few days ago and found that prohibition benefits both the employer and the employee, that money hitherto spent in saloons has improved the financial, social and industrial of the average working man and his family.

Both the industrial heads and the laboring men were frank to say that conditions for the employers and the employees are far better than when saloons were going full blast. It was a verdict that refutes the argument that working people are against prohibition.

The wets are doing their utmost to convince congress that the panacea for our ills is light wines and beer. The dyes, who have all too long been asleep at the switch, ought to make congress understand that rigid enforcement is the essential.

To get real enforcement, however, the federal government must hand the job over to the states, put the burden where it belongs, for law enforcement at long range never got very far—it's like sending an ox wagon for a physician for a dying patient.

Put prohibition enforcement in California upon California authorities, each county and municipality taking care of its own bailiwick, and the liquor stills and bootleggers will promptly be put out of business, for the people at home will see to it that the officers enforce the law or get out of the way and let men on the job who will do their duty.—San Fernando Sun.

University Farm

The board of supervisors acted with commendable promptness in ordering that there be placed on the August primary election ballot a proposition to authorize a bond issue of $1,000,000 for the purchase from the government of 160 acres of the site of the Soldiers' home at Sawtelle, to be used by the Agricultural college of the University of California in Los Angeles. Negotiations for purchase of the property have been conducted by a committee of citizens, of which Joseph F. Sartori is chairman. There is no doubt but the people will approve the selection and vote the bonds.

When the board of regents a few months ago sought a new site for the university a condition was made that ground sufficient in acreage and suitable for a university farm, for the Agricultural college, be provided. For the campus the Westwood site was found ideal; but there arose a doubt if the board of governors of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers would be able to sell the tract counted upon for the farm. The committee then took up the negotiations, which have progressed successfully to the point that there remains now only to obtain consent of congress—which is perfunctory—and the transfer will be made.

With the university and Agricultural college Los Angeles county will have one of the greatest educational institutions in the west. It will be a matter of pride and satisfaction—and, incidentally, great benefit—to the entire south. The supervisors have done well to be so prompt.—Express.

A Fundamental Point

It was never the intention of the founders of our government to have it go into competition with its private citizens. Every time it enters the field of business it does a lasting damage to large numbers of its own people and adds a double burden on the taxpayers who must make up the tax revenue which government-owned enterprises are exempted from paying.

The greatest sufferers from government competition at present are the small publishers and printers who cannot compete with the tax-free government-owned printing plant which prints and sells return-addressed stamped envelopes. There is much agitation to discontinue this abuse, but at the same time we see the country flooded with political propaganda to launch the government in other branches of industry. All such proposals are contrary to the true spirit of our constitution.

The fundamental point the American people must consider is not so much whether they want public ownership of some particular industry, but whether or not they want to change our entire form of government, the cardinal principle of which is a recognition of the right to private property and the development of private enterprise under government protection, to a system which does not recognize the right to private property and which would have the government step in and take over the various business enterprises which heretofore private citizens have had a right to operate.

to see the wonder $2,990 5-room Spanish stucco home near Covina

Open For Inspection

This is the home people for twenty miles around are talking about.

We will probably build fifty of them this year. We have purchased material for nearly that many already.

The general public can not understand how we can give the home owner so much for such a low price. The answer is simple.

Large buying power. Spot cash to buy materials with. Practically no overhead. Long building experience and very low profit per home but lots of them.

Whether you are going to build or not we invite you to come and visit this home. We assure you that you will learn something about new conveniences, but you will wonder how we can give our clients such a beautiful, high quality home at such a low price.

We will not try to describe here all the nice features you will find.

We want you to come and see for yourself. Home builders, those who are going to build, and contractors, you are cordially invited. We want to meet every one of you.

REMEMBER IT IS NEXT SUNDAY, MAY 9th.

The home will be open from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. so that you all may come.

Several hundred people will be there so come as early as you can.

The home is located on the north side of Covina boulevard just west of Lark Ellen boulevard. It is 2 miles west of Covina on the main road between Covina and Baldwin Park. You can't miss it for you will see our sign.

TAX BURDEN WAS HEAVY IN 1868

We are taxed for our clothing, our meat and our bread,
On our carpets and dishes, our table
and bed,
On our tea and our coffee, our fuel
and lights,
And we're taxed so severely we can't sleep o' nights.

We are stamped on our mortgages,
checks, notes and bills;
On our deeds, on our contracts, and on our last wills.
And the star-spangled banner in mourning doth wave O'er the wealth of the nation turned into the grave.

We are taxed on our offices, our stores and our shops,
On our stoves, on our barrels, on our brooms and our mops, On our horses and cattle, and, if we should die,
We are taxed on our coffins in which we must lie.

We are taxed on all goods by kind Providence gives,
We are taxed for the Bible that points us to heaven;
And when we ascend to the heavenly goal,
You would, if you could, stick a stamp on our soul.

LEGION BALL TEAM
WILL PLAY AT PUENTE

An American Legion baseball team has been organized in the valley, and is playing each Saturday afternoon on the grounds of the Puente high school. The pitcher is "Poll" Peritt, of Coast League fame, and the catcher Merle Duddergar of Covina. They will meet some of the fast semi-professional teams of Los Angeles and vicinity.

What Will Walnut
Harvest Be Here?

This is an anxious period among walnut growers, for the trees are holding back a secret: Will there be a heavy setting of walnuts?

Up to the present time growers have been unable to answer the question. The fertilizing blossom has been rather scarce, and close inspection of the trees so far has indicated that the setting will be rather light. However, there is plenty of time for the trees to respond to the wishes of the owners; it is not too late for a second spurt of interest in their job to bring the trees up to normal, so far as a crop outlook is concerned.

Theories as to just what has prevented the trees from making the showing expected of them differ.
Some believe that the winter was so warm that the sap in the trees was not driven into activity and for that reason the trees did not have a normal development this spring.

MYSTERY OF SEA
"GRAVEYARD" SOLVED

Presence of a so-called "dead spot" in the air near Victoria, B. C., prevents fog signals from being heard and thus explains why so many ships have gone on the rocks in this "graveyard of the Pacific." This is the opinion of scientists who recently have been investigating the mystery. The phenomenon has been observed for years. Fog warnings from the lighthouse on Race Rocks could be heard distinctly at points farther away but were inaudible to mariners near by. This occurred in clear weather as well as in misty.
On one occasion, the lighthouse keepers could be seen from a tug a few hundred yards away, but the sirens could not be heard from the boat although they were plainly audible at other places miles distant.

The "zone of silence" is supposed to be due to the movements of the tide and winds which sweep together at certain times off the rocks in such a way that an area of dead air which will not carry sound is created—Popular Mechanics.

Mrs. Lane and Miss Frances Lane were guests Wednesday afternoon of Mrs. W. S. Sides.

Mrs. J. M. Pearson entertained Wednesday evening with a birthday dinner for her sister, Mrs. W. C.
Haynes, of Los Angeles. Covers were laid for seven.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Prather and Mrs. Alice Clapp attended "Patsy" at the Mason theater Wednesday.

No-Hit, No-Run Game Is Pitched
by Chamberlain

Harold Chamberlain, a freshman, pitching for the Covina high school baseball team, is credited with that wonder of wonders in ball-dom, a no-hit, no-run game, in the contest with Puente last Friday afternoon.
The score for the game was 10 to 0 in favor of the local boys, which leaves them at the top of the San Gabriel Valley league with a percentage of 1.000.

There was a little doubt as to whether Chamberlain should be credited with a no-hit game, as some were not certain as to whether a drive by Blee of Puente was touched or not by Jewett, playing short at that time. However, Jewett says he touched the ball, thereby making an error.

During the game Chamberlain struck out twenty-two batters and walked only one. In the entire nine innings but thirty batters faced him.
In the majority of the innings it was just one-two-three.

Chamberlain started in at the first of the season as first baseman and relief pitcher, and his development as a pitcher has been so rapid in these few weeks that he may be called the best pitcher in the league.
Chamberlain was also a star quarter on the football team, and with three more high school years facing him he is one of the most promising athletes in the south.

Chaffee, Puente's star pitcher, was ineligible for the game Friday, and Clark, who took the mound position, had a hard day of it. Covina collected twenty-two hits and three two-baggers. Martin, Pratt and Mautz led in the batting.

LAST RITES FOR JACK
FOLLOWS HELD FRIDAY

The funeral of Jack Follows of Azusa was held at Sawtelle Friday afternoon. Mr. Follows died shortly after midnight Monday of last week at the Soldiers' Home in Sawtelle.
The Masonic lodge of Azusa, of which he had been a member for many years, attended the funeral, also a few from Covina.

Mr. Follows had lived in Azusa for some thirty years. He was a brother of the late Ralph Follows, coming to this valley shortly after the latter located in Azusa.

Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Rudack, Jimmy and Lenore, spent the week-end at Lunde's camp at Big Bear lake.
Mrs. E. O. Weegar is a guest this (Friday) afternoon at a bridge tea given by Mrs. Harriek and Mrs. Gil-lick at the Victoria club in Riverside.

Zane Grey Picture
Here Three Days

"Chip of the Flying U" will be the feature film at the Covina theater tonight (Friday) and tomorrow.
Hoot Gibson, leader of western actors, has teh leading role. The picture was adapted from the novel of the same name, which has been one of the big sellers.

The coming of the first man to American soil and the gradual development of the native race of the western hemisphere are depicted in
"The Vanishing American." Zane Grey's story of the disappearing red man, coming to Covina Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Glenn Hunter will be the star in the picture for Wednesday and Thursday, "The Little Giant." This production was adapted from the Saturday Evening Post story, "Once a Peddler," by Hugh McNair Kahler. "Rastler's Ranch," with Art Acord, will also be shown on these nights—this being a double feature bill.

WILL PRESENT PLAY
IN AID OF MISSIONARY

On the evening of May 16th the Triangle Girls will conduct the evening services at the Christian church, presenting, in addition to special music, a play, "Tired of Missions." A silver offering will be taken for Evelyn Utter Pearson, a missionary in the African field.

Cleveland
Model 31 Sedan

f.o.b. Cleveland

FOUR simple little one-syllable words—"they ride on oil"—aptly and vividly explain why Chandler and Cleveland motor cars are both noted for:

- MORE than average POWER.
- SMOOTHER than average RIDING.
- MORE than average DURABILITY.
- LOWER than average UPKEEP.
- LESS than average DEPRECIATION.

To protect quality and augment the benefits of exacting engineering, Chandler and Cleveland have both adopted an advanced method of high-pressure motor lubrication.
Oil is continuously pumped to all bearings under full pressure. And the pump in each case is self-priming—which means that it will pump to the last drop of oil in the crankcase!

Chandler and Cleveland both have, moreover, the famous "ONE SHOT" SYSTEM of centralized chassis lubrication. You simply press a plunger with your heel—and "One Shot" automatically lubricates the entire chassis.
Gone is all uncertainty, all cause for worry.
Nothing is left to memory or to chance. Even a patented type of spring shackle is used having an automatic take-up that keeps the springs of both cars properly buoyant and noiseless.

In every detail, right down to every bolt and cotterpin, these cars are built to stand up —time on end—so long as you keep gasoline in the tank, water in the radiator and oil in the crankcase. Take a good look at the new models. Try a ride. Compare!

CHILD WELFARE CLINIC FOR MEXICANS PLANNED

Tuesday, Miss Hendrick, school nurse, Mrs. Ella Patten and Miss Flo Freet, of the Americanization committee of the Woman's club, visited the Belvidere hospital clinic to look over the work and see what was being done with a view of establishing a clinic at Irwindale in the near future. The county and school nurses are working with the committee towards a child welfare clinic for the Mexicans.

MOTHER'S DAY OBSERVED AT ROTARY LUNCHEON

"Mother's day" was featured during the program at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club yesterday. Two appropriate songs were sung by Joseph Coles, tenor, followed by two violin numbers by William Kurash, fifteen year old student of the Covina high school. Another high school student, Arthur Gonthier, was introduced as the winner of a state contest for an essay on chemistry. In the absence of President Dameral, Vice-President Frank Wright handled the gavel.

FERTILIZING BEANS

A most exhaustive series of experiments in fertilizing Kentucky Wonder beans has been carried out in the Island Guam and the results published in a bulletin.

The greatest yield and the greatest profit came from the use, on each acre, of sodium nitrate, 250 pounds; acid phosphate, 625 pounds and potassium sulphate, 270 pounds.

COVINA WATER ONCE HAULED FROM CANYONS

In early days in the Covina valley, grasswood roots were about the only fuel, and water was obtained by going up the canyon of the San Gabriel. Eastern people said facetiously: "They climb for water and dig for wood."

Alaska has a remarkably mild winter and the unusual weather conditions there are attributed by Alaskans to a probable change in the Japan current, resulting from earthquakes. On the entire American continent, however, the early winter was characterized by warmth in northern and cold in southern latitudes.

The Pacific Electric railroad was completed to Covina in July, 1907. There were ten thousand people gathered at a big barbecue.

And the light of the heart of all mankind.

With the light of love going on before, Be the light of the world forevermore!

This perfect jewel, strung as a pendant to a rope of pearls, whose brilliance is a gift from the sun, whose heart reveals the soul of poetry, whose depths reflect the spirit of music, and whose rays are the life of the world—that is the fourteenth verse of a cantata for treble voices, with piano and organ, written by Frederick Baxter Brooks, the music by Richard Kountz, and sung by the COVINA VALLEY LYRIC CLUB as the latter half of their May program Tuesday evening, May 4th.

"LIGHT"

To the Lyric Club—our congratulations.

Something Many Forget

at the most important time.
that is—

"The cost of an article for use is never determined by price but always by service."

Therein lies the secret of the reputation of the largest makers of men's clothing in the world. Style and appearance count for much, but it's the length of satisfactory service that makes

HART SCHAFFNER
and MARX CLOTHES

the lowest priced good clothes made.
